“ Since middle school we would just sit and talk even when weren't suppose to about sneakers, music and fashion...we would always be fly and on the scene...we lost contact as we transitioned young men in high school to adults but when we linked back up it was like we never missed a beat...Eddie you gota know I wish I could've done more and said more and it deeply saddens me that your gone, we would converse everyday and to know we won't chat anymore hurts incomparably...I love and will miss you ridiculously friend...

“ You will always be Little Eddie to me. I remember your sweet soul as a kid with you and Tomeka going to dance school together and also private school. You was like my baby as well. RIH

“ Little Eddie,

We are so sadden of your passing. There are lots of wonderful memories for us to have in your memory. From day one, you were a joy to have as my nephew and I'm always proud to say I'm your uncle. As for your your five beautiful children, we have it from here. We'll do our best to corral, look after them with love and most of all, keep your memory alive. As you transitioned to heaven, I believe you have found the loving arms of your dear mother (Wendy) once again. May you forever Rest In Peace my dear nephew. From your loving uncle.
