“ Ed, as we called him or Mr. Ed to my children, was a dear friend to my husband Robert (Tallman) Houston. He was a faithful friend who was there for him throughout his cancer battle that he fought in 2002. He visited him almost daily in the hospital and when he was released to come home. After I had spent the day at the hospital he I would arrive at home to see our lawn mowed (he knew how Robert loved to keep the lawn maintained). Through the years Ed became a faithful friend and brother as well . He never forgot our birthdays and arrived at the door with gifts for us or money for our granddaughter Serenity.

He was one of a kind, a gentleman, a wonderful husband to his wife Marie, a good father, grandfather and great grandfather and a faithful friend who walked the walk of doing for others as you would have them to do unto you. He will be sorely missed by us .
