“ Absolutely heartbroken that Edwin has transitioned. I'd known him as a kid & was once mistaken for him in the 8th grade. Back then, he was full of mischief, lots of fun... and he always had a good heart. I'm sure those qualities followed him throughout his life. My deepest condolences to his family & friends. He will be missed.

“ Sandra, kids and grands. Our family sends their deepest condolences and continual prayers for you all. No one knows how situations like this impact individuals. But we do know that God is in control. Please be encouraged and know God is ever present. Ed was an amazing man, husband, father and grandfather. Our memories will keep us smiling. To shod be the glory. Love Eric and Gina Hobbs.
