“ Grief can be so hard, but our cherished memories help us cope. Hold tight to those memories....Lean on each other for support.... And look to God’s word the Bible, for comfort and strength. James 4:8 encourages; “Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you.”

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I extend condolences to you all. God is aware of your sorrow and he promises a future when "Your dead will live... They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus confirmed his role in that promise when he said "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~ John 11:25.

“ My condolences in the loss of your beloved family member. The sting of death hurts so much that it may feel as though the strength to cope disappears. Our heavenly father, Jehovah is always there to comfort us during this difficult time. The psalmist at Psalm 94:19 found this to be true, and it can be yours as well. It says:” When anxieties overwhelmed me. You comforted and soothed me”. And the promise at Jeremiah 31:13b “I will change their mourning into exultation. I will comfort them and give them joy instead of their grief.” May these scriptures comfort you at this time of bereavement.
