“ Please accept my sincerest condolences in this time of grief. The loss of a loved one, is never an easy process for us, because it is unnatural. God never purposed for mankind to die, and to have to endure the emotions that come with the loss of a loved one. But I encourage you to dwell on God's promises of a resurrection and the permanant elimination of death and the sorrow that it causes. If you meditate on Revelation 21:4 and Isaiah 25:8 I am sure you will comforted to know that you can see your loved ones again in peaceful conditions. You and your family are in my prayers.

“ May the God of all comfort sustain you now and during the difficult days ahead. Please remember that God and His Son has made a wonderful provision to resurrect our dead loved ones. John 5:28, 29 assures us that: The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. God always keeps his word! (Joshua 23:14)
