“Missing you until we meet again on Judgement day! May we all be ready for Yahshua when Our time comes.

A good name is better than precious oil, and the day of death than the day of one's birth. Elder Phillip Chapman retired his flesh to rest in Messiah on April 6th, 2024 on the day of rest. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have guarded the belief. Elder Phillip was born on July 25th, 1954 in Carrolton Georgia, to Billy and Bernice (Boswell) Chapman (preceded in death), his sisters Wanda (Eddie) Young, and Valerie Rogers also preceded him in death. At 5 years old he was filled with the spirit of Yahweh. Along the way he made everyone around him laugh with his uncanny ability to brighten a day with his wit. His prowess to protect those he loves and defend the belief has stood as a pillar to those who know him best. He leaves behind his wife Shirley Jean Chapman of Snellville, Georgia who continuously shared the belief and uplifted him as he sought to share his love for the Master with others. His son Justin (Tonja) Chapman of Valdosta, Georgia followed in his footsteps as a minister of the good news of Messiah Yahshua. His daughter Lesley (Ahmad) Taylor of Mableton, Georgia. A daughter Kristin Chapman of Rex, Georgia. He also has two step sons Brian (Pam) Searls of Columbus, Georgia, and Glenn Searls (preceded in death). Along with his grandchildren Anthony Chapman, Austin (Raven) Chapman, Joshua Chapman, NiYah Taylor-Love, Chloe Chapman, Eden Taylor, Eliora Taylor, Nijah Searls, B.J. Searls, Kari Lynn Searls, Tamicka Searls, Jalon, Von, Shiah, and one great-granddaughter Eden Chapman.

Life is a delicate balance and he mastered the art of balancing physical objects upon the top of his fingers, and everyday life obstacles by going to the floor in prayer. His humor would provide a laugh while he remained with a serious composer. His life is a testament to what it means to be a protector as he guarded his children along the way, and protected his wife, and all of those he loved.

Beneath the exterior, Phillip was a very loving, sentimental, devoted man, who would go toe to toe to stand for what he believed in and did not waiver from the steadfast convictions that Yahweh placed inside his being.

After retiring from General Motors he continued in ministry, working with the sick and shut-in team, ordained as an Elder, and on the Deacon Board for Church of Atlanta Lighthouse where he had attended since Pastor Alan Rowan and Bishop M.D. Spires almost 50 years ago.

Man of Yahweh, Strong, Funny, Steadfast, and full of wisdom, wit, and grit. We respect the man you are, the love you gave, and the time you spent ensuring your seeds did not fall on fallow ground.

Let us all look forward to the day we all meet again in glory eternally, while carrying on the light, spreading the good news of salvation, and fighting the good fight with integrity and honor as he did.

Mighty prayer warrior of Yahweh, His shield has guarded you well. Until we meet again, may you rest well as we continue in the love you poured into our beings.
