“ Dear McDougal Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. "There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous " May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

“ I first met Eleanor when she came into a Beauty Supply store where I worked. Eleanor was looking for products to do her own hair and when started talking and she asked me you sure know a lot about hair and products and I said yes I am a Hairstylist, she said well I dont need these products because I would like for you to do my hair. That day started a friendship that blossomed and seasoned overtime. We would talk for hours at a time, We became dear friends. God needed another flower for his garden and he chose Eleanor. My dear friend sleep in heavenly peace. I love you with all my heart and will always cherish our memories
