“ My Sister I called “Baby” was such joyful person to know, but a beautiful angelic soul who wishes live within my life as long as I live on earth.

Once you had the option to meet her you met kindness, friendliness, happiness, loveliness, and above ALL, you met a Godly Woman of Faith.

She demonstrated a quiet humor that didn't allow for gossip or demeaning anyone.

My “Baby” and I have been communicating with each other through shared joy. Love memories.

Because I'm human, yes I cry and miss her here on earth, but tears become dry; she says “Rosa Baby” your “Baby Elease” is in Glory Land singing & shouting with the Angels. Bring joy, ease suffering and create beauty, then dance like you mean it!

Blessings.

My love always...Rosa

“ I met Mrs. Anderson through her sister (Rosa) in the mid 1960's. Instantly, we bonded. Her loving and gentle smile always made me feel welcome and loved. If the dictionary displayed pictures beside the word kindness, Elise's name and picture would appear. A godly woman indeed. May her soul be at rest with our Savior, Jesus Christ.
