“ I only had the privilege to know the 'Queen' for about a month. During that time she shared with me the love she had for her family, the respect she had for the Bible (especially the 23rd Psalm) and how much she hated coloring! These memories I will always cherish. She always smiled and never complained. I will miss her now, but look forward to seeing her again as Jesus promised at John 5:28, 'Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.' My love and prayers are with all of you as you go through this most difficult time.

“ I will miss my Nan greatly!! I think that I am really fortunate that all my Grand Parents have been so lovely and kind in their own ways. Every time I eat my mom's cooking now I will think of the memories and times we shared with Nan who is the ORIGINAL Master Chef!! => The best thing is that I only have good, funny and happy memories of Nan, which shows just how much of nice caring person she was! Nan you will be missed...

“Nan was a wonderful person and such a joy to be around. We will miss her sorely. Each of us remembers her in our own way, her memory will be with us for the rest of our lives and it is a memory we will pass down to our own children. A special person indeed. Our prayers are with our family and Nan's close friends at this time, that they can be strong during this challenging time. A grandmother who will be cherished forever.

“ Although we cannot be with our family during this sad time, our thoughts and prayers are with all.
What a lovely mother-in-law I had in 'Mom', strong but caring, understanding and a good friend to many. God fearing and a lover of Gods Word. Oh and what an amazing cook.
All the family and many friends made during her visits to England remember her fondly.
She remains in our memory and more importantly in Gods.

“ Condolences to the family of Liz as she was affectionately called by us all. She will be greatly miss. Liz was a faithful member of our Church community always in attendance for Mas and social events, known by all for her trademark that white curly hair, she sits at the front and we could point her out when we sit at the back just by her hair. She has only gone before us sleep on my beloved sleep on and take your rest.
