“ To the Elizabeth Floyd Family,

My sincere condolences for the loss of your dear love one. Please know that God made hope for the dead possible by sending his son Jesus to die for us.

The Bible says, "God...will wipe all tears from their eyes, and there will be no more death, suffering, crying, or pain." Revelation 21:3,4.

“ My mother is a patient in the same nursing home where Ms. Elizabeth used to reside. She was a very warm and welcoming person. Every time she saw me she welcomed me with a big "Hey." It would sometime catch me off guard because I assumed she didn't notice me, but she did. The last time we talked I brought Valentine cupcake to the residents. It gave me so much joy that Ms. Liz once again greeted me and wanted one of the cupcakes. Now, when I visit there will be someone missing Ms. Liz. Yet, I'll smile and remember both her in my heart. God bless!
