“ Sending my sincere condolences to Curtis, Deanine & family. Liz is my home girl from Brooklyn, NY. We went to St. Paul Baptist Church in NY.together. When Liz left NY she moved to Georgia and we lost contact. A couple years later I moved to Georgia and ran into Liz at the grocery store. She took me under her wings and showed me the ends and outs of Georgia.

We traveled together, celebrated family gatherings, did events with our children. She even got me a job working in the Bursar office at Georgia Tech. We ended up fellowshipping at Victory for the World Baptist Church in Stone Mountain. Liz you will be greatly missed. 🌹

Love you, Yvonne Bowens-Pettiford

“ Elizabeth and I would tease one another about arriving to church late. She was late more than me (LOL). In fact this is how we got to know one another. I will miss laughing and chatting with her. Go in peace my sister. Your smile and soft laugh will be missed here, but warmth for those in heaven. Much Luv
