“ Although I didn't know Ella Barnes personally, as a concerned reader I would like to offer my sincere condolences to the family. May you be comforted by your loving memories, family, and close friends. Know that our Heavenly Father Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) is near to us in our times of distress. (Psalms 34:18) The Bible assures us a time when sickness and death will be done away with, (Revelations 21:4 Isaiah 33:24) and a time when our loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (Acts 24:15 , John 5:28,29) Our Heavenly Father will grant us the mental peace we need (Phillipians 4:7) when we draw close to him in prayer. (James 4:8) May this scriptural comfort soothe your heart until these promises are fulfilled. For satisfying Bible answers on this subject and more visit jw.org

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Ms. Ella Barnes. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ To the Family and Friends of Ms. Barnes: I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. Continue to rely on God's loving resurrection provision to comfort and encourage you now and in the days ahead. God promises a future when "death will be no more" and "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (Revelation 21:3-5 and John 5:28,29). Keep in mind..."God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." (Psalm 46:1).
