

Mrs. Ella Louise Rucker

June 9, 1959 - March 3, 2023

Ms. Ella Louise Davis-Rucker was born on June 9, 1959, to Torance Davis, Sr, and Lillie Mae Davis. She was the “first baby girl” born into the family and absolutely adored by seven big brothers. A sister in the family was truly a joy and she was instantly surrounded by love and protection. She graduated from Forrest City High School in 1977. She was united in marriage with Clarence Rucker Jr., and together they raised two loving children, Tasha and Brian. As a military wife, she was able to travel and see many parts of the world. But her most precious moments were time spent with her family and friends.

On March 3, 2023, she was called to her heavenly home where she joined her parents, brothers Thurman & Herman Davis, Frank Garrett, and Robert Turner.

Ella’s memory will be cherished and her legacy continued by her children, Tasha & Brian Rucker of Atlanta, GA, her grandchildren Torel Howell (Memphis, TN), and Britney Rucker (Austin, TX); her siblings Odis (Liz) Lewis of Chicago, IL, Dan (Theresa) Garrett of Lake Charles, LA, John (Marlene) Garrett of Lake Charles, LA, Torance Davis of Mesquite, TX, Barbara (Craig) Walls of Wichita, KS, Cora Aldridge of Forrest City, AR, Ronald Davis of Jacksonville, FL; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends.
