“Mary, just a few months ago your Mom made mentioned to me how she missed the things we used to do traveling and going to the movies. We laughed about what a good time we used to have on Saturdays. First, we participated in the ministry and after the ministry we would go to the $1 movies and see two movies in one day. I am looking forward to seeing my dear friend again soon when she awoken from her temporary sleep.

“Mary, Ella was a special person everyone who knew her loved her. To have her as a friend was truly a privilege. One quick memory I was Taking dialysis and this one day of the convention it was when we first started going to Marietta now anyone who knows me know that I am afraid of the expressway, but I wanted to get to the convention Ellen Road with me and when we were on our way back, I looked up and saw spaghetti Junction and started shaking. She said that's all right. It's gonna be all right. We'll go the street way. Ella knew every crook and counter of that division. I don't know how she did, but she got us back on our side of town. I love her can't wait to see her in the new world, knowing how much she like to laugh. I wanna be there to see that beautiful smile. We will see her soon. Barbara 🌸
