“ We met back in 2014 at the radio station and became friends instantly. "Ms. Ellen" as I always addressed her respectfully, was a very genuine person. It's hard to find a genuine person and I found it in her. She made space for others, and listened intently always leaving people laughing. I will forever treasure our friendship.

Though our chain has been broken and it will never be the same. Our Heavenly Father has called her home. I know, our chain will link again. Rest in peace, God has you in HIS keeping now. I will miss you, cherish our laughs and memories forever "Ms. Ellen".

My deepest sympathies to the Bridges family. You'll always be in my prayers.
