Obituary

Mr. Elliot K. Henderson

October 10, 1973 - August 17, 2017

Elliot Kawan Henderson was born October 10th, 1973, at Grady Memorial Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia. He was one of 12 children born to Henry Arthur Henderson and Margaret Diane Henderson. He grew up in Scottdale, Ga where he completed his education at Clarkston High School in 1992. He was married and is survived by his beautiful daughter Syleena Chanel Henderson.

For a number of years, he worked as Maintenance Engineer at Wendy's in Dekalb Co.,Ga., There he was known to take great pride in his work. He was esteemed by his superiors and colleagues alike. All the while, he also served in the music ministry at True Followers In Christ Church. He served there as a drummer where he faithfully shared his talent every Sunday and whenever opportunity arose within the church community.,

Not only was Elliot a musician, but he was also a gifted artist and poet. Although he had poor sight from early childhood, he was gifted with an amazing ability to draw the most beautiful artwork imaginable. He would spend hours upon hours perfecting each magnificent piece. Additionally, he also wrote many poems and rhymes, which he loved to share with everyone.

Elliot will be sorely missed not only by his daughter, Syleena Henderson, but also by his surviving parents, Henry and Barbara Henderson, and by his siblings, Henry Lamar, Henry Arthur Jr., Myrnice, Halekia, Rashida, Absalom, El Nathan, Kalla, Horace, Kawan, and Brittany. He is further survived by many nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts and cousins.

We will always remember him. Whether as a faithful friend, a loving father, a devoted son, or a caring brother, we will certainly miss his wonderful spirit.
