“ To the family of Eloise Clark, Earth knows no sorrow, that Heaven cannot heal. During this difficult time, look to Jesus who is the author and finisher of our faith. The Lockett family will keep you in our thoughts and prayers during your time of bereavement.

“ Please accept my sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. Revelation 21: 3-5 holds out a promise that in the near future the sting of losing loved ones will be a thing of the past. For Jehovah God has comforted mankind through his Son Jesus Christ that he will soon awaken those who have fallen asleep (John 5: 28, 29). What a time that we all look forward to!

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family of Eloise Clark. We don't know why sad things happen...but we know that love and beautiful memories outlast the pain of grief. It has been said that a person is not dead until he/she is forgotten. The care and love Eloise had for her family and friends will forever be with you and she will never be forgotten. My special prayer for you and your family is may God, who has given Eloise sweet joy and peace at last, renew your strength, console your heart and surround you with His love. “ Eloise was part of my Xerox family. We were never on the same working team, but I always felt that she was part of what made the work environment special. We would laugh, make jokes, talk trash and I knew she connected with me and I with her. Yes, she was one in a million and Eloise, you will be missed so much.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Clark. There are a few things in life that hurts us more than the death of a loved one. But it is at these times that we turn to our Heavenly Father for comfort. Please read Acts 24:14,15, Rev 21:3,4, & John 5:28, 29. These scriptures give us comfort & hope. They also help us to see that death is not permanent. For more encouraging thoughts about the dead such as: What Happens to Us When we Die? Please visit jw.org. Thanks
