“ Please accept my sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. Revelation 21: 3-5 holds out a promise that in the near future the sting of losing loved ones will be a thing of the past. For Jehovah God has comforted mankind through his Son Jesus Christ that he will soon awaken those who have fallen asleep (John 5: 28, 29). What a time that we all look forward to!

“ To the family of Eloise Clark, "Earth knows no sorrow, that Heaven cannot heal". During this difficult time, look to Jesus who is the author and finisher of our faith. The Lockett family will keep you in our thoughts and prayers during your time of bereavement.

“ With Sincere Sympathy In the Loss of your Love one. May the love of your wife and mother so generously gave you be your strength, your consolation, and may the love she still sends you bring you joy, even at the time of such great loss.

Eloise was part of my Xerox family. We were never on the same working team, but I always felt that she was part of what made the work environment special. We would laugh, make jokes, talk trash and I knew she connected with me and I with her. Yes, she was one in a million and Eloise, you will be missed so much.

“ I will miss "Aunt Elosie"! I called her my Aunt not because we were related by blood but because of the words of wisdom she offered me as a teenager growing up. She always smiled and you had to smile back no matter how you were feeling. The last time I saw her she told me she was proud of the woman that I had become and that she loved me. We embraced then I shared pictures of my three kids and she talked about Donnie and his family. I will always remember that moment and how happy she was to see me! May God continue to strengthen you during your time of grief. My love and prayers go out to your entire family. The Andersons: Antonio, Raquel, Bryce, Blaire and Christian

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family of Eloise Clark. We don't know why sad things happen...but we know that love and beautiful memories outlast the pain of grief. It has been said that a person is not dead until he/she is forgotten. The care and love Eloise had for her family and friends will forever be with you and she will never be forgotten. My special prayer for you and your family is may God, who has given Eloise sweet joy and peace at last, renew your strength, console your heart and surround you with His love.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Clark. There are a few things in life that hurts us more than the death of a loved one. But it is at these times that we turn to our Heavenly Father for comfort. Please read Acts 24:14,15, Rev 21:3,4, & John 5:28, 29. These scriptures give us comfort & hope. They also help us to see that death is "not" permanent. For more encouraging thoughts about the dead such as: What Happens to Us When we Die? Please visit jw.org. Thanks
