“ Aunt Eloise after hearing of your passing I have truly been at a loss of words. My heart is broken , but I am relieved that you don't have to hurt anymore. I just cherish all the times that we shared and remember the days that spent with you and my Uncle James. Now I can't pick up the phone to chat with you , hear your voice or your laughter. You were such a Lady of God. You would always have encouraging words. I won't be able to hear you call my name . You would say Pooby I love you and Mia, if you need me for anything just call me. I know that mom is dancing with joy because her sister is once again with her.
Forever in my ❤️ , SIP Auntie your work is done and you did a “ Fantastic Job”

“ My Aunt Eloise was fierce, she wasn't afraid of nothing. She believed in God and that was it. As a little girl I would watch her playing that organ it would get so good to her you see her jump up and be praising God and playing we didn't realize she was ministering through her music. I would always say “I want to praise God like my Aunt Eloise and preach like my Aunt Doris and God did just that. I thank God for the example she presented to us with out speaking a word. She was an extraordinary Woman of God and Faith...Revelation 14:13 KJVS
[13] And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.
