“ Condolences from the Watkins Family. We go back a long way and a long time. Your mother and my mother were best friends back in the day. Everyone thought they were sisters, when you saw one, you saw the other for the most part. We babysat all of the Hawkins Kids (lol) from Lola, Regina, Vanessa, Pewee, Daryl, and Cedric. We used to love to hear Sis Hawkins sing at church. She could do some singing!! They taught us how to carry and conduct ourselves as young ladies. We are what and who we are because of them!! I have many good memories of her. Rest In Peace Sis Hawkins!!!

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family and friends. It is heart rending to lose someone you love but the Bible comforts us by promising that there is going to be a resurrection to life in the near future. John 5: 28, 29 holds out this hope. At Revelation 21:3-5 Jehovah God faithfully promises that tears and pain will soon be a thing of the past. I hope these Bible passages provide you with much needed comfort during this difficult time.

J BOYD - January 18, 2014 at 12:01 PM

RE

JB, thank you so much, I read these verses and I am a believer in God and these scriptures are a comfort. Thanks for sharing. Be blessed.

“ My aunt was the BEST! She was always that person you could go to when you needed to talk. She encouraged me when I was down and I will forever be grateful. I miss her dearly already. To my cousins, know that she loved each of you and she did what she needed to before expiring.

Love,

Lana

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of Mrs Else Mae Newman Hawkins. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ I'm sorry about the lost of your Mother. I hope you find peace in this poem.

"I'm Free"

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call.
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full I've savored much,
Good times, good friends, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all to brief,
Don't lenghten it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, he set me free.*
