

Lil Miss Emani Gabrielle Moss

April 23, 2004 - November 2, 2013

Emani G. Moss of Lawrenceville, Ga passed on November 2, 2013.

Emani Gabrielle Moss (Angelface) was born on April 23, 2004 in Gwinnett County.

Emani was bright and beautiful and full of life. She enjoyed reading, dancing, cooking and making up songs. She enjoyed attending church with her Grandmother and would be seen preaching to her stuffed bears and dolls. Emani loved school and excelled in all subjects. At the age of three, she attended the Susan Chambers School of Dance where she studied ballet. At the age of five Emani attended Gwinnett School of Music, where she took guitar lessons.

Emani's presence would light up a room and her spirit would be felt, she was an angel on earth. Emani will be greatly missed but always remembered. Those left to cherish beautiful memories of Emani are: her grandmother, Robin McCarthur Moss; grand-father, Dwight Roderick Moss; aunt, Sharoniece Rich (Terry, Zyah, India); uncle, Dwight R. Moss Jr. (and son); great-grandfather, Robert (Beverly)McCarthur; aunts, Linda Maria Norman (and family) and Yvette Riddle (and family); uncles, Robert McCarthur Jr. (and family), Doron M. (Britney) McCarthur; great-aunt, Sandra Hill; great-cousins, Lonnie L. Gray (and family), Stephanie Gray-Clark (and family), and Charles Ray Patrick (and family); siblings, Tristan Moss and Emma Moss; and a host of other family, classmates, teachers, and friends.

Donations in honor of Emani may be made at any Wells Fargo Bank.

“ My heart is hurting so much just thinking about what this little girl went through and how she tried to reach out to adults for their help, even to the point of running away. Her cries were ignored and she was given back to her tormenters. How could someone hurt this beautiful innocent little angel?? You don't have to be afraid anymore baby girl, the Lord is keeping you safe in His arms now. RIP.

“ Dear Ms Moss and family,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss of this beautiful young girl Emani. I can only imagine the pain of losing such a young loved one.
Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for.
The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). To find the Bible's satisfying answers to many other questions, please go to the website jw.org.

“ Ms. Robin Moss you are in my prayers for a life time. I experienced a similar situation with my friends son while living in California. Keith was 3 yrs old and was sexual abused and was beaten to death by his biological dad. The Children Of Protective Services failed us also. We were so shocked and devastated. With the information we learned about (THOPS). They was no way Keith should have been placed back into the home.(THOPS) knew he had molested her daughter (of a previous relationship) when she was 3 yrs. and both of their sons they had together. This could have been prevented if my friend had of believed her daughter. Who was removed from her home by her maternal-grandmother & reside with her. We must listen carefully to children & do what we can to save our children. I can only imagine how you feel with the suspect being your son & the victim your LITTLE BEAUTIFUL ANGEL EMANI. Stay strong and know it's not about knowing each other. It is about caring, sharing and helping. Stay strong and I will never forget about you and know that you are loved. Keep The Lord with You.

Our hearts and prayers are with you as you grieve the loss of the blessed Emani Gabrielle Moss. Her light will forever shine in the hearts of everyone who has been touched by her beautiful smile, her angel face, and her story.

We pray for healing as Emani is now with our Lord and Savior. We pray for a family who begins to heal, a community that mourns the loss of a beautiful soul, and the understanding of what the gift of Life really means.

Robin-we stand with you and your family to change a system of failure. Emani Gabrielle Moss will be remembered always.

Robin Moss-

I had to stop by to offer my sincerest condolences. I reached out to some of your family members hoping to get in contact with you.

I hadn't watched the news much, but overheard co-workers talking about this tragic story. I paid no attention to the names of the parties involved because I felt the story was too tragic and unreal. It wasn't until TW asked if I saw you on the news that it all hit home and the proverbial light bulb went off.

If I knew the words to say to comfort you and your family, I'd say them. To the couple of people I have talked to about this story, I honestly said if I don't remember anything else about the time I worked with or spent around Robin, I knew her kids were everything to her. I feel safe in saying the same holds true for your grandchildren as well.

Emani was a beautiful little girl. I hope you eventually find peace and are somehow able to stay strong and move beyond this tragic loss while cherishing her memory.

Best,

-Parker

“ My heart is incredibly heavy right now & tears continue to pour down my face over this sweet angels passing. I never had the chance to meet you, but others in my family were able to be graced & blessed with the opportunity of spending time with you & getting to know you. They all spoke extremely highly of you little princess & they couldn't wait to see you again. All the family has now is one photo of you, that you took during your last visit & it will definitely be cherished forever. You're now resting in the arms of the Lord, where no more harm can ever come to you. My prayers will continue to be with you & your entire family, as well as with my family, as you were also a part of mine. Rest In Eternal Peace Angel Face & continue to light up heaven with your beautiful & bright smile.

Never met you but my heart breaks for your grandmother. I am a grandmother also of 4 beautiful grand daughters. Can't imagine how anyone could hurt any of them. Know you now will never feel pain or suffering. Look down on your Grandmother, your friends, teachers and all whose life you touched and keep smiling and let them know you are in a better place and although they miss you dearly they will one day see you again smiling.
