“ To the family i knew manny for years and even though we split up and went are different ways i always had deep feelings for manny and we remain just friends . i had a dream of him chilling with me in his old blue buick and i couldnt make out what he was saying but i heard him say goodbye. So i woke up and search for him on facebook when i saw his face to the article of his death i was saden to see him gone. I never said sorry to him for the mean things i said to him when i left and hopeful this letter doesnt offend anyone . I am sorry this young man and good person has gone home to heaven and hope for closer to the family on this day . GOODBYE MANNY .love always denise brown:(

“ To the family of Mr. Mitchell,Our family would like to offer our deepest sympathy for the loss of your precious loved one. Words cannot take the grief away, but knowing that others are thinking of you can serve as a source of strength. May our Heavenly Father continue to wipe the tears from your eyes as we all await the day when God has promised to resurrect our dear loved ones.
(Revelation 21:3, 4)

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. I offer heartfelt condolences and encouragement from God's Word. The Scripture recorded at John 5:28,29 assures us...The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. Keep in mind that God cares for you (John 3:16 and He always keeps his promises! - Joshua 23:14. Jesus said...I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. - John 11:25
