“ I have so many memories with Emma, of meeting her when she was a young girl and I was in my 20's, of her being pregnant with Alprentis and his being born, and seeing him for the first time, of running into her teaching in the same place I was working a couple of years later, of years of conversations, discussions, tears, and laughter, of sharing major events in our lives. She was an amazing woman, who cared for people, who fought for the righteousness of things, and who loved her family with all her heart. I feel so blessed to have been able to share with you all her final weeks, though I didn't realize that's what we were sharing. She was so proud of her family, telling me about your dreams and hopes, your challenges and accomplishments, the birth of children. You have so much to remember and cherish, and my heart and love is with you in the days and years to come.

“ Even though your hearts may be heavy with grief, please remember that our heavenly father also feels your pain of grief. Through his word the Bible he offers comfort to help us cope. Psalm 34:18 says; Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit. Also the wonderful promise at Isaiah 25:8; He (God) will swallow up death forever. And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe the tears from all faces. Because God cares for you (1Peter 5:7) he will help you to cope at this difficult time. Please be assured also of my deepest sympathy.
