Gosh this is hard to hear. I only got to work with you for a short period of time but the moments in meeting you and sharing time with you, you were the most awesome! You were a man of strong faith and loved the lord. I know he has you in his arms. It's so true the good die young :(fly high big guy you are going to be missed.*

“ I was blessed to meet Emmanuel through work shortly after I moved to Atlanta and he quickly became family. Always ready with a smile to greet you and a kind word to lift your spirits. Emmanuel was a man of his word and would do anything he could to help you. To hear him talk about his family (Kim & the boys) was something to see. I will miss my friend, my brother. Rest peacefully Emmanuel.

“ Emmanuel was a fine young man. I had the pleasure of being his little league baseball coach when he was 11 years old. The way he stole second base always reminded me of the great Walter Peyton avoiding tackles. Emmanuel was also the most well mannered and polite young man I ever coached. His father raised him right and it showed in him in every way. In my last season his dad helped me coach the team. My heart hurts, and I am deeply saddened to hear of his passing, but am comforted in knowing he is with God above. Rest easy young man. You're in the lord's hands now.

“ I really don't know what to say! But I'm so heart broken you had to leave us. You came to me for advice numerous times and I tried to tell you to do what was right. You and your beautiful family grew on me as you were a younger brother of mine's. I will miss asking you "how are you doing and you would always say, better now that I have seen you"! Rest in peace my little brother, love you in my heart.

“ Your word declares that you are near to the broken-hearted and you save the crushed in spirit. Lord, at this very moment, our hearts are broken, our spirits have been crushed at the passing of our dear friend Emmanuel McGill.

Unselfishly, we say thank you for allowing us to experience the atmosphere of light, love and laughter that radiated from the essence of his character. Not just to those who knew him best, but to any and everyone he encountered. Even during his most difficult days he would always greet you with a big burly smile, so powerful in fact, you could feel it through a telephone call thousands of miles away.

Although we hurt, we will choose to take on your spirit of courage. Although we will forever miss you, we will remember the legacy of life you left us on this earth and make certain to live our lives accordingly so one day, we can see you again.

To Kimberly, Emmanuel Xavier, Elian and the family, we love you. We pray for Gods divine direction, comfort and presence in the coming years.

“ Our friend and Son-N-the-Lord. We remember so much about you and your kindness, your visits, hugs, and our phone visits. The joy on your face as you shared your babies smiles, the smiles on you and Kim's faces as you moved to Georgia. All are eternally etched in our hearts as we pray for comfort for your family. May our prayers connect with yours for care and love for your family who remains. We love you, however God loves you best 🙏 Peace, Love & in tears we share. 🙏
