April 8, 2013

Home Going Services for Elder Emmitt L. Robinson, Sr, age 85, who entered peacefully into eternal rest on April 8, 2013 will be held on Saturday, April 13, 2013 at 11am at Lucas Temple True Church of God in Christ-679 Glendale Rd, Scottdale GA. Bishop Opre Jeffries, Senior Pastor. Elder Marvin Jones - Eulogist. Elder Gary Battle-Officiant. VIEWING/VISITATION held FRIDAY, April 12, 2013 from 9am-9pm here at our SCOTTTDALE Chapel. Interment will be at RestHaven Garden of Memory-Decatur GA.

He leaves his wife of 26 years, Louise (Prater) Robinson; his daughter Deborah Ysaguirre; sons, Emmitt, David, Joseph, Edward, Philip, Paul, Jonathan, Samuel, Sanford, Robert and Larry; 43 grandchildren; 39 great grandchildren and many nieces, nephews and close friends.

He was born in Atlanta, Georgia, July 7, 1927 to Dock and Bertha Robinson. He was preceded in death by his siblings, Annie Laura Parham, Robert Robinson, and Clara White, and by his first wife, Wahnell Robinson.

He later retired as a warehouse supervisor from Ralph Wilson Art after over 27 years of service.

He was a devoted Elder in the True Church of God in Christ for over 40 years. During his ministry, he assisted at Lucas Temple Church of God in Christ in Scottdale, GA and Burke County True Church of God in Christ in Girard, GA. He pastored the True Church of God in Christ in Cochran, GA and Thomaston, GA for many years. He was known for many phrases; some of which included “Who wouldn’t serve a God like this?”, “The wages of sin is death!”, and “It is right to live right, and wrong to live wrong.”

His memories will forever be cherished.

“ To the family of Emmitt L. Robinson Sr.:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ *To the Family:
May your faith in God's loving resurrection provision continue to console you all as you keep in mind: "God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. At John 11:25, Jesus promises: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Remember...God is faithful and his promises are sure! (Isaiah 26:19, Revelation 21:3-5)*
