

Mrs. Enid Anelia Delpratt

February 8, 1933 - February 2, 2025

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Enid Anelia Delpratt, who departed this life peacefully on Sunday, February 2nd, 2025, in Lithonia, GA, just six days before her 92nd birthday. Born on Wednesday, February 8th, 1933, in the vibrant parish of St. Ann, Jamaica, Enid lived a life full of love, service, and faith.

Enid was a devoted member of the Pentecostal Deliverances Assembly Church, where her focus on equipping, empowering, and inspiring her family through prayer was a testament to her unwavering faith and dedication to her community and loved ones.

Her hands skillfully nurtured a career as a seamstress, weaving both fabric and the very fabric of her family's lives with warmth and affection. Enid's commitment extended beyond her family, touching the lives of many through her work and faith community.

She was preceded in death by her beloved spouse, Benthon Delpratt, her father, Edwin Belnavis, and her mother, Ada Belnavis. Her legacy is carried on by her cherished daughters, sons, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and a host of other beloved family members, who will continue to draw strength from the love and values she imparted.

The family invites friends and loved ones to celebrate Enid's life at a primary service held at the Pentecostal Deliverances Assembly Church. Following the service, she will be laid to rest at Kennedy Memorial Garden. Her grandsons and the deacons of the Pentecostal Deliverance Church will honor her as pallbearers, a duty reflecting their deep admiration and love.

Arrangements are graciously provided by Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Homes & Crematory-Rockdale. Enid Anelia Delpratt's life was a beautiful tapestry of faith, love, and dedication, leaving an indelible mark on all who had the privilege to know her. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
