“ Enoch was a great friend to us through Living Hope church. He always had a smile on his face and he was always ready to talk about The Lord! What a great servant he was, ready and willing to serve any way he could. We will miss him and will be praying peace and comfort for his family during this difficult time.

“ Enoch and I met while working together at Lowe's. In a matter of minutes, we had the distinct knowledge of being woven together as friends of Jesus. He emulated the qualities of Jesus everywhere he went. The love of music as means of personal worship was something we had in common. Grateful to know we will be reunited one day in Heaven. Few men can compare to his authenticity and kindness!
