

Eric L Newton

November 2, 1968 - May 6, 2025

With heavy hearts and deep sadness, we announce the passing of our beloved Eric Newton, who went home to be with the Lord on May 6, 2025. Eric was born on November 2, 1968 in Chicago Illinois. He is a veteran who served in the United States Navy and was blessed to have lived a full life of love, strength, and God's favor.

Eric approached life with strategy, resilience, and a stern firmness. He was an adamant provider and led by example. He enjoyed watching football with the fellas, and spending time with his family. Eric was a very wise man whose wisdom not only touched our lives, but the lives of others that knew him.

Eric leaves behind his loving mother Deborah Newton; a cherished wife Kit Harris-Newton; sister Tina Newton; brother Milo Newton; dedicated children Cozetta Whitfield, Chantae Jeffrey, Chanel Newton, Bryson Craft, Jordan Newton, and Jerry Harris; (2) son-n-laws; (7) beautiful grandchildren; and a host of other family relatives who loved him just the same.

Eric's unwavering strength and dedication to his family will truly be missed. Though we mourn his loss, we are forever grateful for the time we had with him. Take your rest in heaven Eric. We love you,

“ Eric and I grew up together just houses away from each other on 113th in Chicago. We were friends but not tight. When my mom and I were preparing to move to Atlanta someone told me you know Eric is living in Atlanta. I've been to Atlanta before so I knew people say they live in Atlanta but might live in the suburbs of Atlanta so I thought running into Eric would take a small miracle. One Saturday afternoon my mom and I stopped at a service station so she could play her lottery numbers. There was a guy in front of us playing the lottery. I didn't know that the guy holding up the line was Eric. From that moment Eric and I went from friends to brothers. Out of all the service stations in Atlanta and suburban areas we happened to be at the same store at the same time. I always say God works in mysterious ways. From that moment we became inseparable. He had my back and I had his. Memories of our road trips back to Chicago or just cruising through Atlanta. Eric always had a nice ride that turned heads and I was that guy trying to holla at women from the passenger side of my best friend ride. When TLC came out with that song I knew exactly what they were saying. Eric was always there for me. When I relocated to Texas my mother eventually decided to relocate too. I needed help relocating my mother so who do I ask, Eric. With no hesitation he said just tell me when and where. That was another great road trip he and I shared. Almost every important moment in my life since we ran into each other in the lottery line Eric has been apart of. Another important moment was me getting married. I called Eric and asked him to be my best man and he said just tell me when and where. He represented me well as my best man. We talked a couple weeks before this horrific incident and made plans for he and Kit to come here (Dallas) in August. Eric was a great person and more importantly a great brother. I'm writing this with a heavy heart. I guess I'm still in disbelief. All I can say to bring some comfort to me is God needed him. Rest in peace my brother.

“ I had the privilege of working with Eric for nearly 14 years. We started at the company before there was even a building—just a plan and a team. From the beginning, Eric was someone you could count on. He always went the extra mile, but never let anyone take advantage of his kindness or work ethic.

He had a great sense of humor, a sharp mind, and somehow always had a home remedy for whatever was ailing me. I'll miss his presence, his wisdom, and his friendship. My thoughts and prayers are with Kit and the family.

“ Eric was such an amazing person and will be missed. The office just isn't the same without him. I always enjoyed chatting with Eric and we often shared stories during the lunch hour about home projects, sports, and I tried to get him to enjoy some wine with me after work, but he wouldn't have it. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Eric.

My thoughts and prayers are with his family. It is still hard to comprehend that he is no longer with us.

I enjoyed working with him and the many conversations we had at SGS. And sharing my homemade Banana Pudding with him.
