“ I truly enjoyed the presence of Pastor Powell. You could feel the presence of God radiating through him. I visited his church through my special and loving daughter Cathy Bonner. May Lady Powell find comfort knowing that he will truly be missed and he resting peacefully with his father. Gloria Mcmichael

“ Pastor Powell was truly a man of God I can say that I could have a conversation with him and that’s where it stayed between us. He loved serving the community and I enjoyed working with him and the church family. His spirit will live on for the good work he has done. He will truly be missed. My condolences to Sister Powell and the family
