“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and sadness, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God’s word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4.

“ I would like to offer my condolences to the Stevenson family and also share a comforting scriptural promise that very soon our Sovereign Lord Jehovah will swallow up death forever and will wipe all the tears from our faces...Isaiah 25:8

“ To the Stevenson Family and Friends; I know how difficult this time must be for you. Eric had to have been a wonderful person. May the light from God's word the bible be a guide and comfort through the darkness of your loss. When the time is right, please look up the following scriptures in your copy of the Bible—John 5:28,29 gives hope of a future resurrection and Rev 21:3,4 of a day when there will be no more death, mourning or pain.. We can have faith in what the Bible says because our God, Jehovah (Psalm 83:18)who promised these things...cannot lie..(Hebrews 6:18.) Jesus at John 11:11 said to his disciples..Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep. This helps us to know that Eric is sleeping awaiting a resurrection as was Lazarus and not suffering (Ecclesiastes 9:5) My prayers are with you as God strengthens you in the days ahead. “ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I encourage you to keep in mind that God has already made provisions to restore dead ones to life. He promises: Your dead ones will live....They will rise up. ~Isaiah 26:19. Further comfort is found in Jesus' words recorded at John 11:25....I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his word! ~Isaiah 55:10,11. He will sustain you...
