“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and sadness, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4.

“ I would like to offer my condolences to the Stevenson family and also share a comforting scriptural promise that very soon our Sovereign Lord Jehovah will swallow up death forever and will wipe all the tears from our faces...Isaiah 25:8

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I encourage you to keep in mind that God has already made provisions to restore dead ones to life. He promises: "Your dead ones will live.... They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. Further comfort is found in Jesus' words recorded at John 11:25.... "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Remember... God is faithful and always keeps his word! ~Isaiah 55:10,11. He will sustain you...

“ To the Stevenson Family and Friends; I know how difficult this time must be for you. Eric had to have been a wonderful person. May the light from God's word the bible be a guide and comfort through the darkness of your loss. When the time is right, please look up the following scriptures in your copy of the Bible...John 5:28,29 gives hope of a future resurrection and Rev 21:3,4 of a day when there will be no more death, mourning or pain.. We can have faith in what the Bible says because our God, Jehovah (Psalm 83:18)who promised these things...cannot lie..(Hebrews 6:18.) Jesus at John 11:11 said to his disciples.. "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep." This helps us to know that Eric is sleeping awaiting a resurrection as was Lazarus and not suffering (Ecclesiastes 9:5) My prayers are with you as God strengthens you in the days ahead. “ Phyllis, words can not express the sorrow that I feel right now. Eric was truly a kind-hearted, loving young man and the love that you gave him reflected ever so brightly on his face every time I saw him. I pray that you will gain comfort in the fact that your son is in a place were all of his pain and suffering is gone. He is in the company of some of the greatest members of our family. I love you cousin and know that your family is always here for you!!!

“ Nephewwwwww!! You held it together for 25 years. Job well done! You touched all that had the pleasure of meeting you. You shared your anointed spirit at every waking moment. I hope we made you proud as we celebrated your life during your homegoing service.. Mommy is going to be ok as she knows her angel has golden wings and watching over her. Until we meet again...Love you first!!!
