“*Ericlee was a kind and funny guy to me. When he and my niece Linda got married; my wife and I were there. We were always welcomed at their home. Unfortunately COVID has taken away our opportunity to pay our respects at this homegoing. Just know that our hearts and minds are there with both sides of the family. May God bless you all. “ I met Ericlee a few years ago through Sodexo. He was always a warm, kind and caring individual who cared deeply about doing what was right, especially when it came to food. He was an old school kind of guy and was a true pleasure to work with and be around.

My sincerest condolences to his friends, family and loved ones.

Rest easy my friend.

“ I first met Ericlee 3 years ago when he came to support one of my hospitals. He made an instant impact to the account and was always a professional.

In the years since our paths have crossed several times opening new business across the country. I enjoyed his sly sense of humor, confidence and willingness to do whatever was necessary to find success. He will be remembered fondly and missed by his Sodexo team. Rest in Peace old Friend!

“ I had the honor of working with Chef Ericlee a few times this year. He was kind, cool, calm and collected. He helped anyone who wanted to learn. He was a wealth of knowledge and had the greatest facial expressions. The world could use more just like him. Prayers and hugs go out to his family and friends. He made an impact on all.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Ericlee's family and friends. I had the honor of working with Ericlee for the first time, earlier this year. He was incredibly kind, helpful, devoted, and hard working. Seeing his picture here, I can almost hear him greeting me at 4 am in the hospital kitchen, smiling that same smile, saying "well, we made it another day!". He was always smiling, no matter the circumstance! I will cherish the memories I have of Ericlee and I will be praying that God will comfort all of those who were blessed enough to know him. To his family, thank you so much for sharing him with us. He will be greatly missed.

“ Ericlee has impacted my life in so many ways; it's hard to find the right words to express how much he means to me. He was my mentor and very quickly became my friend for life, Ericlee treated me as if I was his own. To know him, was to love him. Thank you for being the better part of my life, pushing me to be a stronger female leader in the culinary industry and most of all, including me into your family... Please continue to watch over me from above...
Until we meet again

With all the love in my heart- Crystal N. Daye

“ I have only known "CHEF ERICLEE through Sodexo for little over a year. We immediately hit it off and became great friends. We communicated with each other weekly. We would often talk through each other's work concerns and reassure each other that it all works out in the end. "It's just food not brain surgery". He was a true culinarian, very knowledgeable and extremely dedicated to his job. I will truly miss our weekly chats or texts and bouncing ideas off of each other. Ericlee, "There are special people in our lives that never leave, even after they are gone". Ericlee you were one of those people for me.

Rest in Peace Brother! 🙏🕊️

“ I will never forget Eric. We all knew him as "Gramps" or "Grandpa", because he was so cool, mellow and calm. He was clearly an old soul. I never once saw him angry, in trouble, using profanity, or anything of the sort. Just a cool, wonderful guy.
