

Erik Maurice McKenzie

July 6, 1992 - October 25, 2022

Erik Maurice McKenzie was born July 6, 1992, in Mount Vernon, New York to Peter and Denise McKenzie. Erik was surrounded by loving family and friends in the Bronx where he attended St. Mary Catholic School and was later suspended in kindergarten for defending his cousin.

It was then that we knew Erik's character of loyalty. Erik was a fierce defender and Guardian Angel to all he came in contact with. Erik was then transferred to St. Francis of Rome Catholic School until 2003 when the family relocated to Lithonia, GA. Erik attended Fairington Elementary, Lithonia Middle School and Lithonia High School.

While attending middle school, Erik was blessed with a younger brother, Dennis on December 30, 2005. They developed an extra ordinary bond. If not for the age gap, you wouldn't be able to differentiate the two.

Erik's passion and athleticism became more evident as he played defensive tackle on the football team for Lithonia High School, where he graduated in 2010.

Erik furthered his studies at Savannah State University where he was a member of the football team. Erik took his passion for protecting others and turned it into a lucrative business of providing security services to those within the entertainment industry.

He passed away doing what he loved. He was known as “The Gentle Giant & Guardian Angel”

Erik was a shining light wherever he went. He had the ability to make you feel safe and would always put a smile on your face. He had a special relationship with all his family and friends. Erik was pleasant to everyone and was loved by all who knew him.

Erik leaves to cherish his precious memories, loving parents: Mr. & Mrs. Peter & Denise McKenzie; brother Dennis; loving grandmothers Alene Linton (Granny) & Eunice Saddoo; grandfathers Kenneth McKenzie & Hopeton Kerr and a barrage of family and friends
