

Erma Lee Evans

November 10, 1946 - April 15, 2025

Erma was born on November 10, 1946, in Memphis, Tennessee and was the oldest of her siblings. The family migrated to Southern California in 1961. She later moved to Atlanta, Georgia with her husband, Charles Evans and daughter Monique.

One thing about Erma is she loved to shop and Dine-out. From finding the right suit, to the perfect piece of furniture, to having girl-talk over a filling meal just know, she was only a call away. Erma loved the best quality of clothing and shared an affection of making a house a home. Her love for interior design was deep and she really had a true talent for it. Her keen eye for art and music was truly special. Amongst a lot of things her adoration and enjoyment for attending the Kingdom Hall was definitely one of her life commitments. Erma was thoughtful and loved to gift her family and friends. She always made an everlasting impression on anyone that crossed her path. To know Erma, is to love Erma.

Erma is survived by her daughter, Monique Dancy; Son-in-Law, Paul Dancy; her granddaughters, Amber and Jessica Dancy; and her sisters and brother, Demetrice Wilkes, Sherrell Pool, Darlene Smith, Joyce Kyles, and Kenneth Pool. Erma was a beloved mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend.

Erma Lee Evans left this life to return to the open arms of Jehovah on April 15, 2025.

Erma will always be remembered for her generous heart, kind words and wisdom.
