“ I cannot put into words how much I will miss my Aunt Jeannie. No matter where I may have been on August 16th, I would always call to wish her a happy birthday. My birthday is the next day. It was like our birthday present to each other. I would always smile when I heard her say "Hello".

August 16th, and days before it and the days following will never be the same without you.

*Love always,
Kysten A Palmore*

“ My favorite memory of my Aunt Jeannie took place when she and Uncle Roland were married. I attended the wedding with my parents. I'll never forget how beautiful the ceremony was and all the gifts they received. I was very young at that time and it was probably the first wedding I ever attended. I'll never forget how my mother looked at me when I giggled when Reverend Parham said ...you may now kiss the bride. You know the look I'm talking about. Wasn't funny then but one of my fondest memories. I'll always remember how much pride my Uncle Roland and Aunt Jeannie expressed in me at my high school graduation. My Aunt was a beautiful soul and truly a woman of God. Take your rest Aunt Jeannie. I'll see you again on that great getting up morning. Love your nephew Kevin.
