Attended R. B. HUDSON HIGH SCHOOL in SELMA, AL. He joined EBENZER

Later went to ILLINOIS with his father, Robert Marshall, who was known for being the best brick mason from Selma. Ernest learned from his father to also become a great Brick Mason.

After learning those winters in ILL. would not allow him stability, he went to the Still Mill, on to CATERPILLAR TRACTOR CO. where ERNEST worked (30 Years and retired. He was as dedicated then like now. You would have thought he owned the CO. He met so many people including Superintendent and managers.

Building long relationships, one for over 50 years and never had an urtication

He met His wife Brenda, who he fell in LOVE with, and married to (38 years)

They moved to Atlanta, and he was hired as Security from August 2009 to August 2025, at NEWBIRTH MISSIONARY CHURCH. Again, you'd think it was his own personal CHURCH. It would take a lifetime to tell all our stories. We climber roofs together and built sunrooms, decks and so much more, I was on his payroll and he loved cars.
