“ Where to begin?

You were a man of God first, closely followed by a loving husband and father to many. As I reflect over the decades and think about the joy and humor you carried, I can’t help but chuckle picturing that infectious smile you shared with everyone you met—with anyone who took a moment to listen. You were a tremendous voice. You were a light. You were a standard.

Many of us now stand firmly on the shore, having crossed oceans, both literally and figuratively, on your shoulders. We go forward as the humble bearers of your tremendous legacy. With faith and love we carry you with us.

Thank you dear Uncle Errol.

“ Errol was very humble and a great leader. The first time I met him was June 2004 when he was booking trips for cruising to Alaska. He had a great sense of humor with his jokes. I extend my deepest Sympathy and Condolence to Ms. Winnie and the Johnson's families during this time. Heaven has gained a beautiful soul. R.I.P.

Mr. J was like a father to me. I've known the Johnsons all my life, as my Mom was Mrs.J's good good friend, where I then grew up with Duane, Robert, and the cousins. I have so many fond memories that are dear to me. Makes it very hard to type this. Just wanna say thanks, many thanks Mr J, for being the type of person one should observe at a young age to then grow into adulthood and have a family by this very example. Mr. J saved me one day, as I was on my way to a job interview and had a tire blowout on the highway. Didn't know how I was gonna rectify this situation, but called my Mom who then called Mr. J. To sum up, got the job and did a 5year stay there. Just an example of how good people move. Love ya Mr J, and will miss you dearly. Dex

Dear Cousin Errol:

Where do I start - you were very close to our family from I was a young girl in Jamaica until I came to the United States. You were the mentor to our family and you will be surely missed.

To cousin Winnie and family - the Lord knows best and our thoughts are with you during this difficult time.
