“ Ms. Etta, you will truly, truly be missed! I can still hear your voice calling me...not by my name. Lol. But, by the name YOU gave me, & ONLY YOU called me!! Lol. It still makes me laugh.

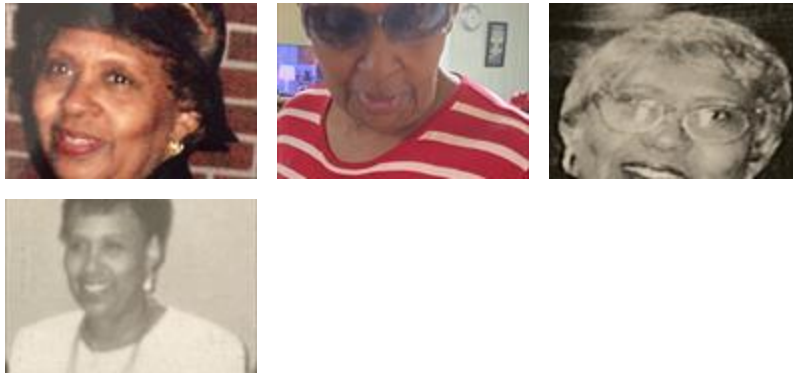

I remember you passing Ny & I mints in church. Your familiar zest & how KIND you always were. Even when we weren't exactly "behaving". I believe it was you who introduced me to butterscotch! I hope you are at peace. 🙏❤️
Love you always, Aunt Etta ~ Lay & family~

Aunt Etta was the most fashionable, most funniest, most loudest, excellent cook, didnt care what anyone said about her, most giving person. I am most grateful that she was my Aunt. RIP Aunt. Keep them laughing up there. With Love from one of your Favorite Nieces....Sheila “ My heartfelt sympathy and prayers of comfort to the White, Fluker and McMillan families. I was heartbroken when I received the call that informed me of my friend Etta’s transition. I have known Etta more than 60 years. She was faithful to God, the church and any position she held. Etta loved people and always wanted others to feel good so she carried a smile on her face and in her heart. Etta, will be missed by me and others. Sleep in Heavenly Peace Etta.

Aunt Etta, you will be missed. I know you’re in great company. It has been years since I’ve seen her in person. Aunt Etta will be remembered as the sassy, “model” of the family. I’ll also miss her fried green tomatoes! SIP Aunt Etta

“ My Great Aunt Etta, she was always so nice to everyone but didn't take no mess. Spoiling those around her all the time. My family and I were getting plans to come see her in a few weeks, not knowing God called her home we made it.

*I hope she is living in her best spiritual life. And hope that anyone who is reading this post, pass along Etta's energy to others that may need it. Be safe, make good choices.
