“ Mrs. Minnie Duncan, My mother and I send our deepest condolences. I remember talking with her as a child at Lilly Hill and singing in the choir. She was always so nice, positive, and keeper of the peace. I haven't seen her in years however, she will be deeply missed.

“ I had the pleasure of sharing a classroom with Eugenia at Dunwoody High School. She was a very loving and caring teacher. We laughed and shared lots of teaching strategies. I still have several decks of those cards that she created to help students with basic Math skills. My students still use them.

My condolences to your family and may God give you the strength and mercy through these times.
