“ My mother was such a beautiful person, inside and out. We will all remember how she made us feel welcome, important, valued, loved, and she made us feel we could all do, or be something great. She was a resilient, phenomenal woman who could face any battle and win. I am confident because of her. I am strong because of her. I am saved because of her. She was a major influencer to family and friends alike. She always wanted the best for everyone. A selfless, loyal, respectable woman who believed in God and his promises. She is a force that will be severely missed. She was God’s angel from birth to death. My mother; there is not enough space here to express the meaning of who she was and what she meant to me. Just know, she was someone special. A real soldier of God’s Kingdom.
Love Always and Forever.
