“ My dear dear brother, from the 3 1/2 years we've know each other, our friendship grew so much to a point where I knew my kids would be calling you Uncle EuEu... I miss you everyday. I miss coming to your room at random times and you telling me to “get out” in a jokingly way. And then proceeding to open your door. My fellow non pork eater lol.. who's going to force me to hurry up out the restroom or get me out of my room to hang out. Regardless of this pain , I want everyone to know how much of an impact you had to many. Especially “L.O.L” we will miss you forever and always have you close to our hearts. I love you indefinitely <3

And too his family. You beautiful ladies are some of the strongest women I know. And I know Eulice loves y'all more than life itself. Keep your heads high. We love y'all !!!

“ To the family, friends and all of those who loved Eulice, I send heartfelt condolences and prayers of comfort during this difficult time. I met Eulice when he was marching with the Stephenson High School band. I traveled with the band for band trips and games as a nurse on the first aid committee. Though Eulice was battling illness, he marched without complaint and was so full of life. He was so proud to wear that "S" on his chest and you could see how his joy and light shined through the trombone section and the entire band family. As an alumni, who also marched with the SHS band, Eulice made me proud! He was a soldier with such a beautiful smile. Thank you Eulice for choosing to LIVE LIFE no matter what obstacles stood in your way, the life you lived truly impacted all those who knew you. Job well done! Rest Peacefully.

“ It is written that “earth has no sorrow that heaven can NOT heal”..so we look to the hills from whence cometh our help. Extending a hand of love and support as we all gain understanding of this blessed existence we call life. Reena & Saeed were the visiting brother/sister duo I have known from a young age,.. then I blinked, and I was amongst young adults making their way. Ever the smiling gentle man, Saeed’s spirit and persona exuded kindness. There was always a smile to offer, and I’ll miss the brightness of it. Take your rest, see you in the wind. Kay-Cee

Saeed it's been Nine months and I can't get you off my mind, if I had known you were leaving us, I would have stayed in Tennessee with you, but that Saturday was everything, we Talked, laughed, ate 🍷 cubes and hugged a lot, I'm so glad I was able to see your smiling face and heard you say what's up Ganny, it meant the world to me, I know u had to go when God pulled your number, but I so wanted to meet your beautiful wife and kids one day, now there is a void in our life that we can only think about! Baby I pray u are with your Daddy and Edy, I'll never stop missing you, who's going to patiently help me with my iPad and 📞 you were the best, and I know without a doubt you would have made a Great software one day! Be blessed and I'll see you bye and bye ❤️❤️🙏 all my love Ganny 🙏🙏🙏
