

Evelyn N Inya-Agha

October 30, 1954 - September 6, 2020

Evelyn Nwando Inya-Agha (Ndo Oyibo), age 65, passed away Sunday September 6, 2020, after a hard fought battle with Ovarian Cancer. She was born October 30, 1954 to Mercy and Geoffrey Chiobi in Onitsha, Anambra State Nigeria. She married Michael A. Inya-Agha on December 7, 1978. Evelyn Nwando Inya-Agha is survived by her husband Michael Inya-Agha, Daughter Evelyn Chinedu Inya-Agha, sons EricMichael Tochukwu Inya-Agha and John Nzubechukwu Inya-Agha, Siblings, Joy U. Nkenke, Grace Anisi , Franklyn T. Chiobi, and Emmanuel O. Chiobi, and numerous nieces, nephews and close friends.

Evelyn Nwando Inya-Agha was a Licensed Practical Nurse for over 20 years and worked for the Emory Healthcare system for much of that time. As soon as she became a Licensed Practical Nurse, she started working towards becoming a Registered Nurse, but life altered her plans. Instead of immediately finishing her Registered Nursing program, for 22 years she worked hard in her profession as an LPN and gave her all to her family. Nonetheless, she never gave up on her goals, through pure grit, determination and a steadfast belief in God, in 2017 she went back to school and in March 2019 she achieved her goal of becoming a Registered Nurse.

Evelyn Nwando Inya-Agha took pride in her work and in helping others. She set the example for her kids and even some of their friends about the importance of a person's character. She held the virtues of temperance, charity, diligence, patience, kindness, and humility close to her heart and practiced them every day. Her family and friends all experienced her as the one they could count on and the one they could talk to about anything. She was a devout Christian and the epitome of a Proverbs 31 Woman. Her dream and most prominent desire in life was for God to use her for his glory. Even in her illness she praised God and wholeheartedly trusted his will. Though we are saddened by her absence in body we are ecstatic that she is with her Lord and Savior.
