“ Evelyn Jones..growing up on Greenwood Avenue you've become my forth mom. You always had a smile on your face and always pleasant. We had countless of conversations growing up around you, you would always tell me to keep God first in my life. You were very active, enjoyed life but most of all a great servant of God. Thank you for allowing me to be a part of your family, life! To the Jones family I pray that God gives you strength, understanding but most of all peace knowing that ma is in the hands of the Lord. She's alright now..we're miss her presence but her spirit lives in all of us that lived on Greenwood Avenue. I love you family...Greenwood Avenue stand up! Let's support each other that's what ma would want from us. ❤️🙏❤️

“ Mrs jones you are one of a kind. More like my mom. So so sweet and humble I will miss you so much. But I know where you are going and it's alright. I always use to see her Illat Kroger and I would ask mrs jones how did you get here and she would say I walked. One thing I can say you didn't mind walking. But I would take her back. So rest on mrs jones. Love you always

Ms Evelyn was a kind gentle person that always gave that beautiful smile. We have missed you during the pandemic in outpatient surgery department at Emory Decatur. I also have missed those wonderful rolls on Wednesday night at Decatur First UMC.

Peace be with you and your family
