“ Dear Tunstall Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one.

Death is an enemy to mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline; "When Death is Swallowed Up Forever....." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states: "And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain anymore. The former things have passed away. What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitle "What Hope for Dead Loved Ones"? If you have any Questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences, may the God of peace be with you and your family.

*Sincerely Yours,
Brandy Molina*

“ While losing loved ones in this system of things is the most challenging trial that we face, we find comfort in the understanding that our loved one is no longer in pain, not sitting in purgatory, not floating as an apparition - but rather asleep in death awaiting the resurrection into an earthy paradise promised to us as a result of the ransom sacrifice of our dear Lord and savior, Jesus Christ. The bible provides this hope in John 5:28-29 - may you continue to find comfort and solace in these promises!

“ I offer sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Tunstall. May your faith in God's loving resurrection promises sustain you all as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." ~ John 5:28,29. Keep in mind..."God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9.
