“ Aunt Yvette I will always remember you were the place to go when we went back to visit New York! You were always warm, inviting and you would make sure Snuggem took us down the street for a slice of pie. Ibrahim and I couldn't wait to get to your house!!! So from those days to the days on the cruise ships.....it was always a blast and I thank you for loving me and I am glad each of my kids, Erra and Kyle had a chance to be with you on a cruise!

Love you forever,
Kariem & Agnes n Erra n Kyle

“ These pictures represent time in space when I met my aunt for the first time and the last time we were together, however there are many memories in between. I’ll miss out conversations when I would tell you my son’s age and each time it was like the first you’d ever heard. We’d laugh then catch up and say our goodbyes. In life you never think your last goodbye will be final. Show your loved ones how much you love and care about them while they’re here because you never know when your last goodbye will be your final goodbye.

I Love you and will miss you dearly, our long talks on the phone sharing and revealing feelings and memories of how you felt about me and my siblings growing up. I really appreciated you being a part of Douglas and I wedding day and the family gatherings from then up to Javars wedding! Memories that will be in my heart forever! Rest in Peace!
