“ She will be missed. I know her memory will live with me. She was a parent figure in my life that shared a concern for me as a child with my own people. Growing up next door, her son Darren and I were probably one another's best friends. Her home was my home. i love her for who she was to me. May GOD strengthen the family during this time.

“ To my mother in law and my buddy. I'm really going to miss you "shawty". I will especially miss getting lunch for you on Tuesday's and watching your daily line up on television (Wendy Williams, Cosby Show, Hey Nick , LMN movies and etc..) everyday. I especially enjoyed taking care of you towards the end. You have taught me so much these 36 years. You have taught me how to be a better wife, mother and grandmother. I love you always.

Your daughter in law for life,

Stephanie

“ Grandma, My Grandma,

Your smile and infectious laugh are what I'll miss the most. Growing up I spent everyday with watching as you kept your house clean and dressed to the nine's. You would fuss if I didn't look my best and I always wondered why so I asked and you said "because you are a reflection of me and this family." And that stuck with me even now. Over these last few years we grew closer. I would try and visit you every Friday and you would count the Friday's I missed and tell me I need to do better and make time for you. I would bring you dinner and we would talk about the week , what I was cooking and how Akiim was doing which made me so happy. We would joke around and laugh all night. Grandma I'm sorry that those Fridays were missed but it's truly ironic that this will be our last Friday together until we meet again. I love you more than words can explain!

“ To Mom from your baby girl,

I will always love and cherish the precious and wonderful memories that we shared together. You were a beautiful and loving mother. I could not have ask GOD for a better woman to raise and love me and our family the way you did with such grace. You taught me so much.. I will miss you dearly. We talked several times a day and spent a lot of time together through out the years. I love you so much and it is so hard to separate however I am glad you are not suffering and free from pain. Until we meet again mama.. Rest in paradise!!
