“ I had the honor of knowing Tony (Everton) for 54 years. We went to school together at Belair in Mandeville, Jamaica and we were best friends. I also had the privilege of living near Everton in California in our early 30's and visited only a few times after he moved to Georgia. But we always spoke on the phone and through all these years were able to hold on to our beautiful friendship. I will miss you Everton. Rest in peace.

“ Paul and I were very sad to learn of Everton's passing. He was an amazing person whose company we always enjoyed. We loved his gentle demeanor, his wonderful sense of humor, his kindness, intelligence and the sheer humanity of the man. We send our deep condolences to his family. We know he will be sorely missed.
