“ My baby brother. I miss you man. I know you were smiling so hard when you heard the band playing. Still can't wait to hear your solo. Your presence will forever live in the band. Love you Zay Bae

“ I've only known Exzavier for a short time. I just remember him being a nice young man and really entertaining. He kept the band hyped up during games. His energy was just so contagious but I loved it. His mom was there to support boom all the way. I will definitely miss him.

“ I just met this young man and his mother about two weeks ago and I was truly impressed with his demeanor and personality. His mother and I talked for a long time that afternoon and the love she has for her child was so evident. Latonya, I hope you find strength and comfort in God's love.

*Respectfully,
Sheryl Williams*

“ I wanted to send my condolences to the family. To lose a love one is a tragedy but at such a young age can be even more difficult for one to bear.

I wanted to share a few thoughts that might give you some comfort from the scriptures. At times like this we all need these reminders. God tells us at 1 Peter 5:7 to pour our heart out to him because he cares for us.

God can help you heal by means of his consoling word the Bible. At Psalms 34:17-19 God is close to those broken-hearted and he will rescue us from all our distresses.

He tells us how he will do that at Revelations 21:4 were it says he will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be gone, neither will there be sorrow nor mourning nor pain be any more.

What a beautiful promise Is held before us and all our love ones we have lost in death.

It is all possible through the guarantee given us by the death and resurrection of Jesus at Acts 17:31.

Know for sure without a doubt God understands the pain you have and what your family is going through at this moment and he cares for you.

I will have you in my prayers and I hope you have peace and may God bless you.
