“ The Cooper family remember Jermaine as a delightful young man who approached life in a very optimistic manner. We shared many good times with him engaging in dinners, outings and church fellowships when he was in town. His army affiliations caused him to live in different places but he would maintain contact via phone, especially with Tobias. As he battled his sicknesses and life struggles he remained a man of faith who spoke of his love of God and family. He will be missed. May the love, grace, and comfort of God embrace you now and forever.
