

Fanisha Le-Andra Curnell

March 28, 1988 - September 30, 2023

Fanisha Le-Andra Curnell, a dreamer and a believer, a truck driver with a heart as vast as the sea, passed away on September 30, 2023. She was a kind soul who cherished her family, especially her nephew, Aiden Curnell, whose laughter brought her immeasurable joy. Fanisha's spirituality and love for seafood mirrored her zest for life, and her warm smile and infectious spirit will forever be remembered by her loved ones, including her parents, Frances Curnell and Willis Curnell, and brothers Nik Curnell and Willis Lenard Curnell. She leaves behind a legacy of love and positivity, reminding us all to embrace life with the same great spirit she exemplified. Fanisha will be deeply missed but never forgotten.

Local services are entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home, Scottdale Chapel, 351 N. Clarendon Avenue, Scottdale, GA 30079. Final services will include with W.M. Smith McNeal Funeral Home, 2119 Dorchester Road, N. Charleston, SC 29405.

“ I met Fanisha while waiting in line at a Jamaican restaurant. We talked and talked so long that we walked to our cars and continued to talk. It was as if we'd known each other for a very long time. She was all of the wonderful things mentioned in her obituary. I am so sorry for the loss of this beautiful spirit. My sincerest condolences to the family. Anita Jones Gates
